Cummins CoE celebrates 159th Birth Anniversary of Maharshi Karve

Cummins College of Engineering for Women, Nagpur celebrated 159th Birth Anniversary of BharatRatna Maharshi Dhondo Keshav Karve, on 18th April 2017. The nation remembers Maharshi Dhondo Keshav Karve, popularly known as "Anna" for his great work in the field of women education and empowerment and the pioneer of Women welfare in India by proposing a tribute to this great social reformer and educator. He strived hard for making the women educated and self reliant and put a first step towards this noble aim by establishing Maharshi Karve Stree Shikshan Samstha on 14 June 1896. The Samstha has a century long history. The seed that was sown 120 years back by "Anna" now grown as a huge tree and provides education, accommodation and training to women in several streams like engineering, Architecture, Management, Nursing, Fashion Technology, Vocational Training Institute, Laser Technology, etc.

Cummins College of Engineering for Women, Nagpur is the promising project of MKSSS in Vidarbha region was established in the year 2010. It was a great occasion for the management and staff of Cummins CoE to offer respect and honor to nation's great leader and reformer. Shri. Milind Kukde, Chairman, MKSSS, Nagpur Project, Shri. Sudhakar Kunte, Former Chairman, MKSSS, Nagpur Project and the entire staff of Cummins CoE were present prominently on this occasion. Shri. Kunte appealed faculties to continue the great work of 'Anna'. He emphasized that a teacher can bring a big change in the society. 'Anna' could do it because he was great educator and devoted his entire life for education of women. The event was coordinated by Prof. Pallavi Tanksale under guidance of Principal Dr. Bhushan Joshi.
